Maryland 4-H Animal Science Program Guidebook Suggested Topics

The Maryland 4-H Animal Science Program Guidebook is a continually evolving collection of information sheets to help Extension Faculty and Staff manage 4-H events and activities related to Animal Science projects. We are interested in your suggestions for additional information sheets that would help strengthen this resource for you. Please list your suggestions below and provide any supporting information and return this form to Chris Anderson by email: canders2@umd.edu or FAX: 301-314-7146:
