

Maryland 4-H Horsemen's Party Awards Nomination Form Due June 18, 2010

Awards will be presented at the Maryland Horsemen's Party on September 26, 2010.

Maryland 4-H Youth Development Award:

The nominee is an individual of outstanding character who has contributed significantly to the development of youth horse interests in the Maryland 4-H Horse Program. Through their positive contributions in helping youth to become competent, caring and responsible individuals, the nominee has inspired others to do likewise.

Maryland 4-H Horse Program Volunteer of the Year Award:

The nominee is a University of Maryland Extension Volunteer that has made significant contributions to the Maryland 4-H Horse Program in the area of youth development and horsemanship. The nominee displays great initiative, leadership, and dedication to the Maryland 4-H Horse Program with the ability to make a difference in the lives of youth, families and their community.

Check which award candidate is being nominated for:

- Maryland 4-H Youth Development Award*
- Maryland 4-H Horse Program Volunteer of the Year Award*

Your Name: _____ County: _____

Your Phone: _____ E-mail: _____

Nominee Name: _____ County: _____

Nominee Address: _____

Nominee telephone: (_____) _____ Years of service: _____

On a separate piece of paper, please describe the nominee's significant contributions made to the Maryland 4-H Horse program as defined in the award description. Be sure to list specific qualities about the person that makes them stand out as outstanding individuals. Nominees will not be considered for an award without this information.

Mail or e-mail nominations to: Kristen M. Wilson by June 18, 2010
Central Maryland Research & Education Center (CMREC)
11975 Homewood Road, Ellicott City, MD 21042
FX: 410-531-2397
kswilson@umd.edu